Whilst requiring modernisation, this three double bedroom Victorian era house has so much potential!! Extending across the archway, the first floor is very generous which includes a bathroom. The ground floor offers two reception rooms and a large kitchen opening onto the rear garden.

Subject to the usual planning requirements, this house has considerable scope for extension and refitting to create a fabulous family home.

The location is a well established side road convenient for both the Railway Station, Town Centre, community pubs and many local shops. Directly to the rear of the house are allotments and the stunning Ransoms recreational grounds.
